

INTERNATIONAL ONLINE ERASMUS+ DISSEMINATION CONFERENCE

„INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS FOR SHAPING THE FUTURE“

KLAIPEDA SENDVARIS PRE-GYMNASIUM

08-10-2020 16.00 (Lithuanian time)

PROGRAM

The aim of the conference: to share experience in organizing Erasmus + program KA1 and KA2 international projects and to present research results on the impact on students, teachers and schools.

Conference moderator: Dovile Skripkauskiene, teacher of English, Klaipeda Sendvaris pre-gymnasium, Lithuania.

16. 00. – 16. 02. Introduction

16. 03. – 16.10. Bo Otterstrom, Leader of the Association „Exchanges for all“, International coordinator, project manager. Copenhagen, Denmark.

“Exchanges for All” – exciting ways of combining the international dimension with “Art as a Tool.”

Questions –answers

16.11. - 16.18. Benny D. Austring, University College Absalon, Consultant, project manager. Roskilde, Denmark.

The “Reach Out” project: a study of art-based transnational teaching and its implication for student learning and development. English learning and a short comparison between the “Reach Out and “Exchange for all” formats.

Questions –answers

16.19. – 16.26. Mikkel Snorre Boysen, University College Absalon, Docent, PhD, head of research. Slagelse, Denmark.

The “Reach Out” project: a study of art-based transnational teaching and its implication for student learning and development. Knowledge about democracy and personal development.

Questions –answers

16.27.- 16. 37. Jurate Valuckiene, Siauliai University, Docent, head of the research group. Siauliai, Lithuania.

Results of the longitudinal study on the impact and sustainability of the Erasmus+ programme Key Action 1 mobility.

Questions –answers

16.38.- 16. 45. Irsida Dinoshi, University College of Business, Deputy Dean of Economic Faculty, PhD. Tirana, Albania.

The importance of internationalization in increasing the skills of students and acquisition of the most innovative teaching techniques by academic staff.

Questions – answers

16.46.- 16.53. Viktorija Triuskaite, Dorea Educational Institute, project and training coordinator. Limassol, Cyprus.

Erasmus+ accreditation for schools: what, why and how?

Questions – answers

16.54. – 16.59. Athanasios Angeioplastis, Serres 2nd High school, ICT teacher, Erasmus+ project coordinator. Serres, Greece.

Experience of Erasmus+ mobilities from coordinators viewpoint.

Questions – answers

17.00.- 17.07. Daiva Elertiene, Klaipeda Baltija gymnasium, teacher expert of English, Twinning and Erasmus+ project coordinator. Klaipeda, Lithuania.

Impact of international projects.

Questions – answers

17.08.- 17.15. Renata Anuziene, Gargzdai “Minijos” pre-gymnasium, teacher methodologist of English, Board member in Association „Exchanges for all“, project coordinator and camps leader. Gargzdai, Lithuania.

Exchanges for all. International dimension as a learning tool.

Questions – answers

17.16.- 17.19. Patryk Wielmowiec, Reda School No3, teacher of English, project leader, students exchange camps leader. Reda, Poland.

How participation in Erasmus+ projects helped me as a teacher and influenced my student’s life.

Questions – answers

17.20. – 17.27. Stefanija Piaulokiene, Gargzdai „Minijos“ pre-gymnasium, teacher methodologist of English, project coordinator. Gargzdai, Lithuania.

Learning by exploring. Education for sustainable development.

Questions – answers

17.28. – 17.35. Irena Radziuniene, Vilnius Silas School, special education teacher methodologist. Justina Kerno, Vilnius Silas School, afternoon group educator. Vilnius, Lithuania.

Everybody can travel.

Questions – answers

17. 35. – 17.40. Alma Kasparaviciene, Klaipeda Sendvaris pre-gymnasium, teacher-methodologist of primary classes. Klaipeda, Lithuania.

Erasmus+ courses experience: students’ motivation in schools - a modern challenge for teachers.

Questions – answers

17.41. – 17.51. Egle Kaniauskaite – Grigiene, Klaipeda Sendvaris pre-gymnasium, teacher of English. Klaipeda, Lithuania.

Impact of Erasmus+ projects on subjects’ integration.

Joint report of Sendvaris pre-gymnasium teachers:

Daiva Tamkuvienne, teacher expert of History

Ausra Januskiene, teacher expert of primary classes

Gaiva Bruziene, senior teacher of English

Jurate Kaniauskiene, senior teacher of English

Margarita Macijauskiene, teacher of non-formal education

Zygimantas Zizys, a student, participant of students exchange camps.

Questions – answers

17.53 – 18.00. Summary